Your will be done

During this period of Lent, as we prepare to remember the great events of Good Friday and Easter, our studies are going to focus on Mark 14, which is about Jesus and his disciples in the hours before he was sentenced to crucifixion. In many ways it is a sad story. There is betrayal and failure amongst the disciples as the cross looms for Jesus. Yet, through it all Jesus stands out as the one who says to God, 'Your will be done!'
