

How to make Borromean Rings

1. Cut out the three rings.
2. Lay one ring on top of one of the others.
3. Cut the third ring.
4. Thread the third ring through the other two as in the diagram.
5. Selotape the third ring.
6. Decorate the rings.

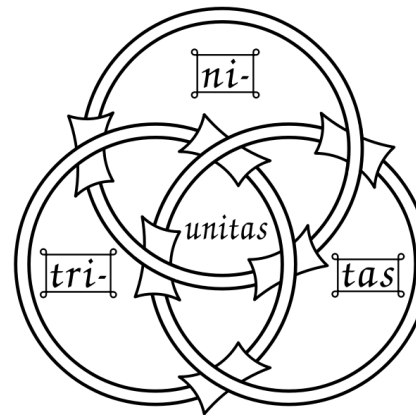

What's special about the Borromean Rings?

No two rings are linked together.

Remove just one ring and they all fall apart.

In the same way you need all three persons of the Trinity to understand God.

The Borromean rings as a symbol of the Trinity, from a 13th Century manuscript